INSTRUCTIONS

Write a short story using page 157 in your textbook to guide you.

Your short story must include:

1. A setting – use adjectives to describe where the story takes place.
2. A simple plot – consider how your story will begin and end
3. A problem or conflict within the story – start your story off with the problem or conflict that the main character is facing.
4. A resolution to the problem in the story – be sure to write with the ending in mind.
5. Your own main characters – do not invent too many characters, keep it simple.

You will be required to submit planning, a rough draft with proof of editing and your neat draft.

Your neat draft must be 160 – 170 words in total and must include 6 – 8 paragraphs.

Pay careful attention to spelling and punctuation.

Be sure to write your short story in a logical order.

Consult your rubric in order to check whether you have met the requirements or not.
